

Leave Indiana telephones law alone. It has eliminated the unwanted calls. Now, I can answer the phone and be 95 % sure it is some one that I need to talk to. It clears the lines for my elderly parents to get through when they need help. Having the calls eliminated has improved my productivity in my home business. Can't just leave a serious technical problem to answer useless phone call and jump back in where I left off. Time is money you know.